Please remove the morse code requirement for licensing. Code is a good hobby but sould not be required. In this day and age it is not a necessity. There are many other modes in which to work. The requirement only holds amateurs back and keeps them from progressing to higher levels of licensing.